Paris Subway Is Super-shelter From Air Raids

Ready for Italy

TOTAL TONNAGE: 810,758

Two of the finest vessels afloat are in the French navy—the battleships Dunkerque (top picture) and Strasbourg. They were the French answer to the Nazi pocket battleships, created to outrun and outgun those ships. They mount eight 13-inch guns and 16 5.1-inch guns. Their speed is 30 knots.

Moreover, the French have just added a new battleship to their forces—the Richelieu—and before the end of the year will add her sister vessel, the Jean Bart.

Next year two more of the same class, the Clemenceau and the Gasconne, will probably be ready. These vessels are 35,000 tons each. They will be armed with eight 15-inch guns and 15 six-inch guns.

King George Approves Canada War Act
LONDON (CP)—King George gave verbal approval today to Canada's declaration of war against Fascist Italy as from June 10.

This was the second time within a year the King's approval had been sought by cable to hasten Canada's war declaration. On September 10 the same procedure was followed when Canada entered the war against Germany.

INDIA DECLARATION
SIMLA, India (CP-Reuters)—The Marquess of Linlithgow, Viceroy of India, proclaimed a state of war between India and Italy today.

Refugee Ship Threatened

Enemy Sub Stops Crowded U.S. Liner

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department announced today that the United States liner Washington with 1,029 passengers en route from Europe was stopped early this morning by an unidentified submarine which first ordered abandonment of the ship, but later allowed it to proceed.

The liner was on its way from Lisbon to Galway, Eire, to pick up additional Americans.

It was stopped at 5 a.m. GMT. (9 P.M., P.S.T., Monday) by the submarine at 12 degrees 50 minutes west, 42 degrees 12 minutes north.

The State Department released the exchange of messages between the Washington and the submarine, sent by blinker signal in the early dawn, as follows:

Submarine—Stop ship. Ease to ship. Torpedo ship.

Washington—American ship. Submarine—Leave ship.

Washington—American ship. Submarine—Ten minutes.

Washington—American ship. Submarine—No answer from submarine.

Washington—American ship. Submarine—Thought you were another ship. Please go on. Go on.

U.S. Defends Western Hemisphere

'No Foreign Footholds In Americas'—LaGuardia

OTTAWA (CP)—The tank is yet unmade and the bomb unperfected that can destroy or crush the democracy of the world, Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York declared in an address before the convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities here today.

"Whatever setbacks the democracies may encounter at the moment, there still is hope for free men and women," he said. "The mental attitude and philosophy of an Al Capone and a Dutch Schultz cannot prevail in a civilized country and govern the world."

Most of the members of the Canadian cabinet and the Ottawa diplomatic corps attended to hear the luncheon speech.

MONROE DOCTRINE

Nazi domination of any country in Europe was as "repugnant" to the United States as it was to France and Great Britain, Mayor LaGuardia said, and his country would stand by the Monroe Doctrine of protecting the western hemisphere against foreign intervention.

It was realized, he said, "that there is no real protection of our own territory unless there is protection for the entire seaboard of the western hemisphere." The United States would countenance no foreign footholds on this side of the ocean, whether obtained "by treaty, conquest or otherwise."

The United States insisted on the status quo on this continent, he said, and "reserve the right to pick our enemies in Europe." "Mussolini," said the mayor, "has deprived the Italian people

Storms Aid Allied Armies

Nazis Checked On Lower Seine

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Maxime Weygand's armies were declared tonight in dispatches from the front to be checking the invading Germans on the French left (west flank), where the deepest Nazi thrust had carried light armored columns across the Seine.

Thunderstorms broke over the vast dry and hot battlefields, impeding the dive bombers and tanks at the head of the German advance toward Paris.

In the central section of the front northeast of Paris a German offensive was being met head-on in the Ourcq Valley. The French right was declared holding firm in the Argonne.

In its regular communique at 10:30 this forenoon, the French high command reported calm on the French-Italian Alpine frontier, more than 10 hours after Italy's formal midnight entry into the war on Germany's side. The statement said French troops on the Alpine front were "in position," but that they had not yet been attacked.

The French army, staging a battle against a powerful German right wing attempting to strike a scythe blow at Paris from the west, checked Nazi attempts to

Heavy Smoke Hangs Over Paris

As the day dawned Paris was covered by a strange acrid smoke that obscured the sun and hung over the city like a pall. It first began to appear early last night. German tanks, operating alone, were reported to have reached the environs of Paris, although the main front was no nearer than 35 or 40 miles. These machines were said to have penetrated the lines in isolated raids.

Paris was but a shell as the government, established here, headquarters in the provinces—"some where in France"—and other vital agencies packed up and left. As most ministers went to the south, Premier Paul Reynaud left to join the army, the Ministry of Information said. Civilians moved southward. The hour was one of gloom for Paris, but France turned to the words of M. Reynaud last night in an address made after Premier Mussolini had announced Italy was going into the war.

"The Allies are strong," he said. "France has been through even greater difficulties and has always been at that moment that she has astonished the entire world."

While to the northeast the Germans pushed across the World War battlefields and approached the Marne and Chateau-Thierry, on the west they pushed beyond the 1914 line.

Infantry Held In Oise Valley

The line north of Paris ran through the central sector of the Oise Valley. After taking heavy losses here, the Germans were holding back their infantry and sending dive bombers out to try to blast away the French resistance, French reports said.

Eastward, where the Nazis crossed the Aisne River, three columns fanned out from Soissons through La Ferte Milon and Le Fere-en-Tardenois and toward Fismes. These units were just north of Chateau-Thierry and the Marne.

Allies Strike in North Africa

British Fliers Bomb Italy's Bases in Libya

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The Royal Air Force Middle East command announced tonight the main Italian bases in Libya had been bombed successfully early this morning.

No details were given, but a communique was promised later. Bases attacked were airdromes in eastern Libya which threaten Egypt, across her western desert.

Italian airplanes on the ground were destroyed there and gasoline dumps were set afire.

The R.A.F. also attacked airdromes near Asmara, Eritrea, (Italian East Africa) announcing direct hits on several hangars.

These points were main Italian air bases threatening the Allied Red Sea communications.

A British Broadcasting Corporation announcer in London, telling of the raids on Libya, said the bombers had "great success," adding "we caught the enemy napping this time."

Airdromes, bombers and ammunition dumps, he said, were attacked and set on fire.

The planes—long-range Blenheims—met heavy anti-aircraft fire and strong fighter opposition.

Three R.A.F. planes failed to return.

Earlier today in London the Admiralty had warned that minefields—reliably reported to be British—were a danger to shipping off the Libya coast, all Albanian territorial waters and parts of the coast of Italy herself.

Areas described are in the Gulf of Venice, the Gulf of Quarnaro, the Gulf of Taranto and the east coast of Sicily, the Italian coast from the Brindisi area to the foot of Italy's boot, the Libyan coast, including the Benghazi area to the Egyptian border, and the Fragmentary reports from Istanbul before war communications were broken last night indicated the Ankara government intended to place the country on a war footing in readiness to oppose any Italian move in the Aegean region.

Greece anxiously watched for naval activities, fearing that because of her geographical position between Italy and Turkey, her peace might be threatened.

While all the Balkan states took heart from Premier Mussolini's words, excluding them from Italian war plans, at least for the present, officials and citizens throughout the Balkans turned their eyes toward Russia, whose program remained a question.

Jugoslavia and Bulgaria looked hopefully to Moscow as a powerful Slav big brother, but the others were apprehensive of possible Soviet designs—especially Rumania.

Raiding Planes Driven From Malta

VALETTA, Malta (CP)—Air raiders made repeated attacks today on Malta, British eastern Mediterranean naval stronghold, and inflicted slight damage.

The first attack brought active anti-aircraft fire and it was reported two air raiders were shot down.

Air raid alarms shrilled seven times between dawn and noon.

In London a War Office communique today said:

"At 4:50 a.m. today a raid by about 10 hostile aircraft was carried out on Malta. A further raid followed during the morning."

"Casualties were slight. Little damage was done. One enemy airplane was destroyed."

Roosevelt Asks Big Red Cross Sum

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt today drafted a letter asking Congress to appropriate $50,000,000 to be used by the Red Cross for refugee relief in Europe.

Stephen Early, Presidential secretary, said the request for funds for the Red Cross was a sequel to Mr. Roosevelt's declaration in his speech last night the United States will extend its material resources to the Allies.

Food, clothing and medical supplies, he said, would be considered as material resources.

R.C.A.F. Men Hurt

MONTREAL (CP)—Three members of the Royal Canadian Air Force wireless school personnel here were seriously injured today when their automobile swerved into a steel post on a city street. They are: Aircraftman S. E. Deschenes, 45, of Quebec; Pilot Officer William Taylor, 34, Winnipeg; and Flying Officer R. B. Walker, 32, of Guelph, Ont.

Earlier Closing Hours

NORTH BAY, Ont. (CP)—As a precautionary measure, following announcement Italy had entered the war against the Allies, Philip Lamothe, Ontario Liquor Board inspector, today ordered hotel beverage rooms closed at 9:30 p.m., one and a half hours earlier than usual.

U.S. Destroyers For Allied Navies?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports that Germany was turning out submarines on a semi-mass production basis stirred Allied interest today in the possibility of obtaining destroyers from the United States.

In view of this construction, it was learned, the British government would like to buy any destroyers the United States navy believes it can spare.

Canada, too, is believed to be interested in naval equipment. The United States navy has 35 old destroyers which have been out of active service since the middle 1920's.

Mussolini Makes His Greatest Error

'U.S. Aid Makes Sure Allies Win'—Attlee

By J. F. SANDERSON
LONDON (CP)—British and French naval power already has started to sweep Italian shipping off the seas, Clement Attlee, Lord Privy Seal, told the House of Commons today. The British navy has seized 14 Italian ships, 10 others are in British ports and three have been scuttled "on the best German model."

"We are not dismayed," Mr. Attlee declared after pouring invective on Mussolini for throwing his country into the war on the side of Germany.

President Roosevelt's assurances that the material resources of the United States would be placed at the side of the Allies were heard in Britain and France with the greatest satisfaction, the minister said.

"It makes it inevitable," Mr. Attlee declared, while the House punctured his phrases with prolonged cheers, "however hard the road, that the cause of civilization will in the end prevail.

"From across the Atlantic has come the answer of a great democracy.

"It was as though day had followed night," said Mr. Attlee, "when, only a few hours after the dictator of Italy had made his dastardly announcement before the serried ranks of the black-shirts, the President of the United States delivered to the youth of his country a message worthy of a great and free republic, sending the whole of America's sympathies to those nations who are giving their lifeblood in combat against the forces of hate."

Mr. Attlee filled in for Prime Minister Churchill, who was prevented from appearing in the House by the rapidly changing military situation caused by Italy's declaration of war. Usually

Mr. Attlee is soft spoken and temperate in language and mild in tone, but today he echoed the thoughts of everyone in this country when he castigated Mussolini and the Italian people.

But Mussolini had made a profound mistake, he declared. Britain and France were fighting side by side on land and sea and in the air and Italy's intervention would make them more resolute and more determined to win.

"Mussolini uses the argument of the jackal that seizes the possibility of getting some scraps from another beast's kill," Mr. Attlee said.

"Hardly ever before in history can the decision to embroil a great nation in war have been taken so wantonly and with so little excuse.

"Great Britain and France have always been prepared to consider any grievances that Italy might feel, and right up to the declaration of war had sought in every way to prevent the war spreading to the Mediterranean," he said.

Shameful Role Chosen for Italy

An "ignoble role" had been chosen by Mussolini for Italy, Britain and France had been "patient under constant abuse and provocation."

Italy, he said, had declared war for purely "sordid and material motives."

He said Mussolini had "seized the chance of securing some spoils at the expense of the western democracies when they were at grips with the brute force of Germany."

"I cannot but believe that many Italians will be filled with shame at the role thrust on them," Mr. Attlee declared.

"France is now stabbed in the back by the descendant of men whom France had freed.

"If Britain is to be attacked in the hope that from her destruction Mussolini might get some pickings for his new Roman empire, Signor Mussolini has made a profound mistake," Mr. Attlee declared.

"The victims whose spoils he hopes to share are not dead.

"The French people, never greater than when in adversity, are fighting magnificently.

"Britain, with her growing strength in the air, by sea and by land, is standing by her side.

Italian people led to slaughter.

"We have no ill will for the Italian people," he said. "We are sorry they should be brought to the slaughter on account of the overweening ambition and lust for blood of one man, but we are prepared to meet the challenge."

"We will give blow for blow.

"Italy, like Germany, will feel the blockade."

Speaking of Norway, Mr. Attlee told how the Norwegian government had come to Britain to have Norwegian territory further from destruction by the Germans and to watch over Norwegian interests during the war.

The Lord Privy Seal said Allied troops had been withdrawn from Norway because of the need to use them elsewhere.

He said the postponed secret sitting of Commons would take place as "soon as permissible," but that the date depended on events.

Mr. Attlee said there was no further information available on the loss of the aircraft carrier Glorious, two destroyers, a tanker and transport, announced yesterday.

Viscount Caldecote, Dominions Secretary, in a war report to the House of Lords, said "retribution will follow this felon's blow" and that from any point of view Mussolini's decision was a "tragedy."

He said a secret sitting of the peers, scheduled for tomorrow, would not take place.

Nanaimo Checks Alien Workers

NANAIMO (CP)—The City Council last night endorsed a resolution favoring a plan to have both the provincial and federal government Ministers of Mines and Labor investigate the number of aliens working in Nanaimo mines and other industries.

The council also voted in favor of a plan that the ministers find out the number of British people on relief through being displaced by these men, with a view to giving British subjects preference.

The council urged that it be made unlawful if other than the British or French language is spoken by men while at work in mines or other industries.

Aldermen William Greaves, termed the resolution "childish and silly" and asked to be recorded as opposed to the motion. The resolution was made by Alderman George Muir.

Enemy Raided Over Wide Area

R.A.F. Destroys 150 Tanks; Rains Ruin on Nazi Centres

LONDON (CP)—Authoritative British sources today reported that 150 German tanks which smashed their way through the left flank of the Allied lines along the lower Seine, had been destroyed by Royal Air Force bombers.

The Air Ministry news service reported that British bombers had carried out a series of devastating raids in Ruhr industrial area and inflicted heavy damage on German supply lines and artillery emplacements in northern France.

"Armored vehicles and mechanized columns which filtered through the left wing of the Allied defences south of the river Esche, have been hunted and repeatedly attacked by strong forces of R.A.F. medium bombers during yesterday's daylight operations over the western front," the Air Ministry said.

"In brilliant sunshine, with perfect visibility, the raiders flew low above main roads and woods, attacking moving columns with bombs and machine gun fire, throwing convoys into confusion with salvos of high explosives."

"In a series of intensive attacks a large force of raiders shortly after noon dropped close to 2,000 bombs of various types within a period of 15 minutes.

"A long column of armored and fighting vehicles and supply wagons on a road south of Poix has been bombed from a height of 1,000 feet and a mass of wrecked vehicles left enveloped in smoke and dust. A six-gun battery suffered a direct hit from a salvo of heavy bombs. Another mechanized column to the west of Poix was repeatedly bombed by a section of the aircraft which attacked in line astern, and a supply column was caught as it was entering a forest by incendiary bombs which fired the vehicles and surrounding woods.

"In a final sortie a raiding force dropped nearly 400 bombs on a horse-drawn column. Direct hits were scored on vehicles and along the road and the crews of following aircraft reported the column was completely wrecked.

Squadron of Tanks Bombed in Village

"Later a still larger force of bombers took up the offensive and successfully attacked enemy forces on the roads near Poix. Six hits were scored on a group of small tanks in the centre of a village through which they were passing. One British raider flying only 50 feet from the ground came upon a group of four anti-aircraft gun emplacements. Despite a hit by a shell which removed part of the bomber's rudder, the crew engaged the battery and at least six of the crew of seven were seen to be hit."

In another bulletin the Air Ministry news service said: "British bombers last night ranged from the mouth of the Somme, to Flushing in the north, Mezieres in the south and throughout the industrial areas of the Ruhr."

MANY FIRES SET

"Shortly before midnight British bombers arrived over the Ardennes country where the Meuse flows north from France into Belgium. Flying over the woods, they dropped more than 6,000 incendiary bombs. Fire after fire was seen to start and blaze furiously among the trees. The flames were followed by many explosions."

Italians Warned Of Hard Struggle

ROME (AP)—Military authorities left Rome today so as to make the Italian capital an open city.

The cabinet imposed new taxes on the country. Measures were also approved providing for taking over enemy property, stabilizing prices, rents and salaries and making certain crimes punishable by death.

King Vittorio Emanuele meanwhile went to the front.

In a proclamation dated from the "zone of operations," the monarch exhorted his armed forces "of the land, sea and air" to "prepare themselves to face difficult tests" in the fight with Germany against Great Britain and France.

The proclamation said the King entrusted to Premier Mussolini "command of troops operating on every front."

ITALIANS WONDER

The Italian people began their day wondering anxiously when and where their armies were striking or being struck first.

The morning newspapers told them nothing of hostilities, but continued to stress Italy's value to Germany in tying up numerous French divisions on the Italian and Libyan borders and in keeping important British fleet units in the Mediterranean.

The Rome newspaper Il Messaggero warned Italians not to expect victory without bitter fighting.

The declaration of war, ranging Italy on the side of her axis partner, Germany, became effective at midnight.

Premier Mussolini's war announcement yesterday sought to narrow the probable front by excluding Switzerland, the Balkan neutrals, so long as they observe strict neutrality, and Egypt.

This meant, however, that fighting might be expected anywhere from the difficult terrain along the French frontier to the stretches of African desert between Libya and French Tunisia.

As Italy plunged into the conflict all Italian preparations pointed to expectation of quick and violent hostilities.

MALTA AND CORSICA

Most military men said a combined aerial and naval action seeking to seize the strategic Mediterranean Islands of Malta (British naval base) and Corsica (French possession which was Napoleon's birthplace) appeared probable.

Attacks on Britain's fortress of Gibraltar, at the western entrance to the Mediterranean, on British Cyprus in the eastern Mediterranean, and on the French naval base at Bizerte, Tunisia, have been forecast by Fascist writers.

Conquest of the Suez Canal, also listed in the public prints as an Italian aim, would require an invasion of Egypt from which Mussolini has promised to abstain.

Hitler Gambles Everything Now

LONDON (CP)—British military circles said today the Germans were "throwing every single thing they've got into this battle because they've got to win it to win the war."

"No doubt in the next few days the main force of the German attack must be spent," a spokesman said, adding that the exhaustion of the attacker must inevitably be greater than that of the defenders.

He cited the double attack on Rethel yesterday, which he said had "made hardly any progress" while the losses of men and tanks were "colossal."

The withdrawal of Allied troops from Narvik, Norway, he continued, was made only after the port had been rendered useless for months to come and when it had become clear that ships, men and guns used there were "required more urgently elsewhere."

MUSSELT'S MOTIVES

Military circles said Italy entered the war for one or two reasons—because Mussolini thought Hitler was winning or because Hitler needed help.

Italy, the spokesman said, has 70 to 80 mobilized divisions, an air force and a navy and has greatly increased the opposition. Italian forces, he added, would be more effective under German command than they were under Italian command in the last war.

Reviewing possible points for Italian attack, he said Corsica appeared to be the easiest, but that the French Riviera, Malta and Cyprus would be "tough nuts to crack."

Heat and lack of water made mechanized warfare impossible in the African desert, he said.

WATER PROBLEM

Military circles said there were about 200,000 white troops in Libya already short of water and unless Italy was able to keep her lines of communication and supplies open "these men must die."

Another 50,000 white troops in Abyssinia face extermination, he said.

Economically Italy will not prove an asset to Germany, forced as she is to obtain coal from Germany and oil from Rumania, he declared.

Meanwhile there was a surprising series of violent demonstrations in which Britons expressed their resentment at Italy's entrance into the war.

Mingled with outward evidences of anger at Italy were expressions of approval for President Roosevelt's speech last night in which he pledged the material resources of the United States to the aid of the Allies.

The press gave almost as much attention to the President's speech as to Italy's declaration of war, and official sources applauded his words as encouraging the Allies to "fight with greater confidence."

"Later the raiders dropped nearly 900 incendiary bombs in the Hirsion region, where large fires broke out. These were followed by flashes and intermittent explosions which continued 20 minutes after the attack. Another bomber started fires with its first salvo and caused explosions over a large area."

"Three hundred incendiary bombs were scattered over a further stretch of forest around Fumay. In the words of a pilot: 'There was at one point a big blue flash which rose very high.'

Bomber Beats Off Enemy Fighter

"Some aircraft found the woods already burning fiercely from the attentions of their predecessors—when they arrived. Near Fumay one bomber was approached by one enemy fighter which played a searchlight on the raider. Attacking from the stern, the German opened fire from close range, but a quick burst from the bomber's rear gun put his searchlight out and soon after he retired."

"Meanwhile other formations of bombers were over the Ruhr, and in spite of rather hazy conditions they registered direct hits on important military objectives."

"The same area was subjected to heavy assault by both incendiary and high explosive bombs.

"At Distop Junction a fire burned so brightly after having been set alight by incendiaries that the British pilots could see it from 40 miles."

"Less than 40 miles from Aachen heavy bombs burst near a railway line and as the bombers turned homeward fires were quickly spreading about the railway."

United States, added to those of the Allies," said one spokesman, "will prove to be a vital factor in the struggle now going on between the democracies of the west and the anti-Christian forces of barbarism."

Italian Buildings In Toronto Stoned

TORONTO (CP)—A number of Toronto establishments owned by Italians were stoned last night while reinforced police squads stood guard in Italian centres of population.

A bottle was sent crashing through the window of a fruit store on St. Clair Avenue. Another fruit store owned by an Italian was stoned and an electrical equipment shop was visited by demonstrators.

Windows were broken and a door smashed at the St. Cecilia Catholic school.

There are 15,000 to 20,000 members of the Italian colony here and the wholesale and retail fruit business is largely in their hands.

Woman in London Had Hitler Letter

LONDON (CP)—Detectives testified yesterday they had found a letter of thanks from Hitler and a letter signed "Unity Mitford" in the possession of a woman accused of distributing German propaganda.

The woman, named by authorities as Olive Evelyn Baker, 40, of Bath, was said by police to have had a pass signed by the Nazi propaganda minister, Joseph Goebbels, and a letter from Hitler's office thanking her for the "part you played on the occasion of the criminal attempt on the Ironclad Deutschland."

("There was no explanation of the Deutschland reference.")

German Not Wanted

OLDS, Alta. (CP)—Placards directing: "When in Canada, do as Canada does—speak English or French," were being displayed in business houses and elsewhere here today.

The placards were issued by the Olds Citizens' Committee and the Olds branch of the Canadian Legion. They were aimed at "a real bunch of Nazis in the town and district" in an effort to persuade them from speaking German, officials said.

Olds is 56 miles north of Calgary.

To Bring Children

OTTAWA (CP)—The plan to bring refugee children from Great Britain to Canada is ready to be put into action immediately, according to an official of the immigration division of the mines and resources department, but consent of parents and the British and French governments must still be obtained before the movement starts.

Mussolini Denounced in U.S.

Press Backs Roosevelt On Supplies for Allies

By the Associated Press
 Editorial comment on the address of President Roosevelt at the University of Virginia commencement, in which he said the United States would extend its material resources "to the opponents of force," included:

Cleveland Plain Dealer (Independent Democrat): "Mussolini has brought home to the American people the danger that threatens all free people. . . . The people, more than ever, will back the President in giving aid to those embattled nations which are carrying on our fight."

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette (Republican): "This (speech) may not be neutrality in a strict sense, but the fact is the overwhelming majority in this country supports the President's position fully."

THEY SMELL CARRION
 New York Times (Democrat-Independent): "With the courage of a jackal at the heels of a bolder beast of prey, Mussolini has now left his ambush. . . . Fascism marches when it thinks that it smells carrion."

"It is the overwhelming testimony of those who know Italy best that . . . the Italian people would have chosen to remain at peace. Given a wiser leadership they could have been a stabilizing rather than a destructive force in Europe."

"If there was ever a decision made by one man . . . it is the decision that now takes Italy into the darkness of night and makes her a moral enemy of every democratic people."

New York Herald Tribune (Republican): "Mussolini has tied his people to the wheels of Hitler's tanks; we can only, for our part, lend every material aid in our power to those still fighting for freedom and prepare ourselves as well and as quickly as we may to meet the test of a struggle for which no compromise is possible."

SUPPORTED BY MAJORITY
 Des Moines, Ia., Register: "President Roosevelt has decided it (the matter of aiding the Allies) in the way that the vast majority of Americans wanted it decided."

Minneapolis Morning Tribune (Independent Republican): "If Mr. Roosevelt spoke too bluntly . . . he will no doubt be disillusioned by Congress. But we suspect that his address did little more than give official utterance to what the nation thinks and feels."

TO PREVENT WAR
 Detroit Free Press (Independent): "The American people want preparedness as a preventive of war, not as provocation for one. In the hullabaloo at Washington this single fundamental fact seems rapidly being forgotten. Mr. Roosevelt forgot all about it in his angry address at Charlottesville last night."

Waterbury Republic (Republican-Independent): "In characterizing Mussolini's plunge of Italy into the war as 'driving a dagger into the back of a neighbor,' President Roosevelt epitomized the indignation with which his countrymen received news of Italy's vicious action. His unreserved and vehement pronouncement of the Allies against the totalitarian governments rings in tune with our own democracy's reaction to what is going on in Europe."

The Washington (D.C.) Post: "The truth and justice of Mr. Roosevelt's declaration are so obvious that no voice is likely to be heard in contradiction."

STAIN OF TREACHERY
 The London Daily Mail said: "The annals of dishonor hold no more dishonorable deed. Italy begins to fight with the stain of treachery on her arms. For this dastardly act the names of Fascist Italy and Mussolini will forever be execrated."

The London Daily Express said: "Mussolini's act is a 'crime against history. Never would he have committed it if he were anything more than a slave tied to Hitler's chariot wheel."

opponents of force the material resources of the nation," he served notice to this effect: "Mussolini has thrown his sword into one side of the scales. Now America throws into the other side certain things which may outbalance the weight of that sword."

"It is the fervent hope of the American people that the scales may be balanced before it is too late."

LA GUARDIA SPEAKS
 Boston Post (Independent): "The President's declaration that we will extend to the Allies material resources . . . is heartening. Many of us believe that the defeat of France can be staved off at this late date."

OTTAWA (CP)—Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia of New York said the United States was nearer the verge of declaring war on Germany today than she was the day the Lusitania was sunk.

Referring to the speech of President Roosevelt at Charlottesville, Va., Mayor LaGuardia said: "The President was magnificent. He went as far as he could in his speech short of actually declaring war."

Mayor LaGuardia came here to address the third annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities. "I have never heard anything so wonderful as the President's speech," he said, "and I was wondering how far I could go in my speech. Now I will be able to open my mouth and say just what I want to."

Prime Minister Mackenzie King took time off from a busy day to pay a social call on Mayor LaGuardia.

ENCOURAGED
 LONDON (CP)—Official circles today welcomed President Roosevelt's speech, declaring it would "hearten and encourage those whom he describes as 'giving their lifeblood in a combat against gods of force and hate.'"

These circles said the Allies "will fight with all the greater confidence now that they have heard the President's uncompromising championship of their cause."

British Press Bitter
'Jackal Tactics Of Ersatz Caesar'
 LONDON (CP)—Britain's press today warned Italians they will suffer bitterly for being drawn into the war and roundly condemned what it termed the jackal tactics of Rome's "Ersatz Caesar."

The London Daily Herald summed up the editorial reaction with a cartoon entitled "In the Trail of the Beast." It showed a jackal, labelled Italy, roving through a skull-littered jungle.

In an editorial captioned "To Mussolini," The Herald began: "So you have plucked up your courage at last," and proceeded to recount Il Duce's previous actions.

"You pretended to the destiny of a Caesar but you aped the methods of a Capone," it said.

The Times of London said: "Mussolini proves himself a good second (to Hitler) in the art of treachery. This is not the first treaty Mussolini has broken; and his 'word of honor' to Turkey, to Greece, and to Yugoslavia is worth no more now than Hitler's."

The Cardiff Mail pointed out that with a coastline of 5,000 miles Italy is virtually an island, assailable at many points and that even Rome is within reach of long-range naval guns.

The Liverpool Post said: "Mussolini has now taken his appropriate appointed place among the enemies of . . . mankind and therefore goes far to confirm the Allies in the righteousness of their cause and in the certainty of ultimate victory."

ITALIANS INTERNED
 MELBOURNE (CP)—Police and defence officials today began a roundup of Italians following Italy's entry into the war. There are 27,453 Italians in Australia, of whom 14,000 are naturalized. It was estimated in Canberra that 1,000 Italians already have been interned.

B.C. Italians Pledge Loyalty

VANCOUVER (CP)—More than 300 Italo-Canadians, representing a score of Vancouver and district Italian groups, stood pledged today to give their "unswerving loyalty" to Canada and the Empire in the face of Italy's declaration of war.

Out of their meeting, called by Angelo E. Branca, Vancouver lawyer and member of the Italian colony here, has come Vancouver's newest "antisubversive" group, the Canadian Italian War Vigilance Association.

More than 200 joined the association immediately. Mr. Branca said he expected its membership to reach 2,000 within a few days.

The meeting pledged itself to follow a path of unswerving loyalty toward Canada and the Empire; give all possible assistance to authorities with reference to fifth column or other subversive elements; make full disclosure to local authorities of the origin, organization, object and operation of any organizations existing in the Italian colony; arrange with authorities for a system of registration, city-wide or province-wide if necessary, of all Italian-Canadians.

In addition a call was made by Mr. Branca for contributions toward an ambulance to be given the Red Cross by the association.

Local people were asked by A. D. Darlington, secretary of the Vancouver Veterans' Council, to refrain from unnecessary action against Italians in the city.

"The Italian mentality is entirely different from that of the Teutonic peoples," said Mr. Darlington. "Personally, I think that Italian residents in Canada are very bitterly opposed to the action taken by Mussolini. By and large the danger of any fifth column activity by Italian residents is negligible."

TRAIL GROUP ACTS
 TRAIL (CP)—Leaders of Trail Italian groups pledged their loyalty to the Empire yesterday in the face of Italy's entry into the war, and dissociated themselves from Mussolini's action.

At the same time community leaders here asked that Canadians of Anglo-Saxon origin be tolerant toward Italo-Canadians, whom they declared to be in no way to blame for the action of the Italian government.

Cardinal Hinsley Denounces Mussolini
 LONDON (CP)—Arthur Cardinal Hinsley, Archbishop of Westminster and head of the Roman Catholic Church in Great Britain, declared the leaders of Fascism, "with brutal realism" had "broken with Christian civilization."

In a statement issued as a result of Italy's entry into the war, he described Fascism as "the open enemy of the faith of the majority of Italian people," for "Fascism has become radical Nazism."

Stiff Fine Imposed

CLOVERDALE, B.C. (CP)—Andrew Simicak, New Westminster, B.C., Czechoslovak, was fined $600 in Surrey police court yesterday when he pleaded guilty to charges of exporting $2,700 in Canadian currency without a permit and of deceiving customs and immigration officials.

Ontario Soldier Killed

AYR, Ont. (CP)—Brian Jones, 26-year-old resident of this western Ontario centre, was killed in action with the Royal Artillery in France May 31, according to word received here.

Jones enlisted in England while visiting his mother in September. He came to Canada from England at the age of 16 years.

Firms Taken Over

LONDON (CP)—The Ministry of Supply under an order just issued brought some 15,000 firms under government control and subject to directions issued by government departments under the new Conscription of Property Act.

Italian Property In Hongkong Seized

SHANGHAI (AP)—The government of the British crown colony of Hongkong today took over all Italian property of the colony. It was learned here.

The United States marines, part of the defence forces of the international settlement here, took up precautionary patrols in their sector to preserve order amidst increased tension arising out of Italy's entry into the European war.

The British, French and Italian forces acted similarly in their defence areas.

Representatives of all governments concerned stated the status quo in the settlement would be preserved.

The British embassy in China issued a communique under the British Trading with the Enemy Act forbidding Britons from trading in any manner whatsoever with Italian interests in China. Violators face heavy penalties.

Princess Juliana And Her Children Reach Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—Princess Juliana of the Netherlands, seeking a haven from war-torn Europe for herself and her two infant children, arrived in Halifax today from England.

Announcement of the safe arrival of the Princess, heiress apparent to the Netherlands throne, and her party was made here by Prime Minister King.

The announcement said the visit arises from an invitation which Lord Athlone, new Governor-General of Canada, extended to them to visit him at Government House here.

The royal party will not come to Ottawa, however, until after the arrival of the Governor-General, who is expected soon.

The ocean voyage was made aboard a Netherlands warship and with Princess Juliana were her two daughters, Beatrix, 2½, and Irene, nine months. The family had been in England since its flight from the Netherlands at the time of the Nazi invasion.

Her Royal Highness was attended by Baroness Veyrum, Baroness Roell and Rear-Admiral Baron and Baroness Devos Van Steenwijk.

They were welcomed at Halifax by Lieutenant-Governor F. F. Mathers of Nova Scotia, Commander Edison Sherwood, representing Government House, and W. H. Measures of the External Affairs Department.

F. E. H. Groenman, Netherlands minister to Canada, also was present to meet the royal party.

VISITS QUEBEC
 From the port of debarkation, it was understood here, Princess Juliana would go to Quebec and stay there until arrival in Canada of the Earl of Athlone.

For some days the External Affairs Department officials had busied themselves with preparations for the princess' arrival. But it was done quietly, the government of the United Kingdom, having requested that no news of the plans be given out.

At no time was there a great deal of certainty among department officials here as to when the party from the ravaged Netherlands would arrive. It was explained the warship carrying the party could not wireless its position and progress because of the dangers of war.

Already Government House in Ottawa has been made ready to receive its new occupants. As recently as Sunday 14 members of the party of Athlone's advance party reached Rideau Hall to prepare for the coming of the new Governor-General and his guests. Capt. G. J. Little, new comptroller of the household, headed the party.

Family Passports Plan

OTTAWA (CP)—A "family passport" arrangement will enable a man, his wife and all children under 16 to enter the United States on the one passport when they are traveling together, it was learned here.

However, when they are traveling individually separate passports will be necessary. The new regulation requiring Canadians to have passports for entry into the United States will be effective July 1.

A Memorable Sentence

MR. ROOSEVELT ADDED 15 WORDS TO the prepared manuscript of his Charlottesville address yesterday which will be remembered by future Italian statesmen as the sentence which sounded the defeat of Signor Mussolini. These were the words which the graduating class of the University of Virginia heard fall from the lips of the President of the United States as he spoke of Italy's entrance into the war on the side of Germany:

"The hand that held the dagger has struck it in the back of its neighbor."

In brief but telling detail Mr. Roosevelt informed the whole world exactly how he and his government had offered their good offices to the head of the administration in Rome in attempts to prevent the extension of the present conflict, how he had expressed his personal willingness to transmit any suggestions Signor Mussolini might be prepared to make to Great Britain and France in the matter of Italy's outstanding grievances, and how he had promised also to use what influence he might possess to bring about a better relationship between all the nations by such means as would appeal to those who desired the world to regain its sanity.

None of these suggestions had been welcomed by the head of the Italian government. Signor Mussolini had rejected them out of hand. Italy had scorned "the rights and security of other nations." But by choosing to preserve what it terms its "freedom of action" and to fulfill what it declares are its promises to Germany, the Italian state had "manifested disregard for the lives of the peoples of those nations which are directly threatened by this spread of the war" and had evidenced an unwillingness to attempt to achieve its aspirations by peaceful means.

All fair-minded citizens of the world, including many Italians, will agree that the President of the United States has completely cleared the sheet as far as his country's efforts for peace were concerned. Long before hostilities broke out last September, Mr. Roosevelt appealed to Hitler, to Mussolini, to Stalin, and to the heads of the governments of other countries, in the hope that some formula might be found to disperse the gathering clouds. But it soon became obvious that nothing in the shape of reason or logic would deter the madman in Berlin—the evil genius who had shaped a course which he intended to follow with fanatical persistence and without regard for even elementary diplomatic decencies. If he could not obtain what he considered essential to the establishment of his own conception of a Germanic hegemony in Europe by threats—which served him well for a time—he would take it by force. The head of the hierarchy at Berlin chose to ignore the President of the United States. But the head of the government in Rome, playing the role of the calculating and deliberate assassin, has earned a fate that might well be even more drastic than that which surely awaits his dominant Nazi axis partner.

What the future holds in store no man can tell. This, however, Mr. Roosevelt has made clear to all the world: The "Americans" will now equip and train for any and all emergency. Of more immediate importance and significance, too, is that part of the President's statement which promises the extension "to the opponents of force the material resources" of the United States. And:

"All roads leading to the accomplishment of these objectives must be kept clear of obstructions. We will not slow down or detour. Signs and signals call for speed—full speed ahead."

It is for Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini to make what they will of the pronouncement of the head of the United States government. All the world knows now how Mr. Roosevelt and the vast majority of the American people regard the totalitarian program in general and the Duce's stab in the back in particular.

Wants More Recruits

WITH HIS IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVE 3,000 recruits from British Columbia for Canada's fighting services, and with Vancouver Island's quota set for the moment at 1,000, Brigadier C. V. Stockwell, officer commanding Military District No. 11, anticipates a ready response from all those who are physically fit and want to take a practical hand in the battle against brutalitarianism and international gangsterism. He informs the Times that this district's supply of the necessary equipment already is available, that men for overseas service and home defence can get into uniforms as soon as they have passed their medical examinations; and he is emphatic in his desire that the need for this initial 3,000 new recruits be regarded as more urgent than ever in the light of Italy's entrance into the war. Brigadier Stockwell hopes—and his hope furnishes its own eloquent commentary—this district's reply to the challenge of the dictators shall be worthy of British Columbia in general and Vancouver Island in particular.

Hitler is the Nazi weakness, too. If a stray bomb should fall on him, the people would have nothing left to trust.

Precious Freedom

ONE THING WHICH THE PEOPLE OF the United States will never abandon is their freedom. That is the point at which they will fight, the point where their liberties are threatened, whether it be from a foreign military aggressor, by domestic borers-from-within, or by any forces which propose to make the ordinary man and woman less free in any important particular. This does not mean that our friends across the border may not impose on themselves disciplines made necessary by these times of stress and uncertainty; but it necessarily must be their own disciplines, prescribed by themselves in an orderly manner. As one commentator in Washington said as he pondered Italy's entrance into the conflict:

"We will not allow a foreign soldier to set foot in the United States. We will not allow one to set foot in a place where he would have an undue advantage in a later effort to invade the United States. We will not allow foreign governments or systems to exercise decisive influences on our own conduct of our own affairs. We will not allow native leaders to fasten tyranny on us, a free people. The means to these ends will vary, as the captain's course varies according to wind and weather. It is unwise to hold to traditional views, traditional means, traditional techniques. These will change, and must change in the new world that is shaping itself. But our eyes must never for one moment leave the goal—a free people conducting its own affairs unshaken and undaunted, secure in the faith that government of the people, by the people, and for the people is right and good, and will stand when military tyrannies are fallen and forgotten."

It may not be in good taste for Canadians to speculate on what our more than friendly neighbor on the south may or may not do in this "new world that is shaping itself." We may be permitted, however, to feel a sense of kinship as we contemplate the expressed views of President Roosevelt—and his observations at Charlottesville yesterday left little to the imagination—of Mr. Cordell Hull and of other leading public men and women without regard for political predilection. Sentiments such as those we have in mind are striking manifestations of a common outlook, a unity of purpose in all that is good and worth having, an assurance to us and those with whom we have made common cause that 130,000,000 people next door to us are our friends. There is no denominator to set the value of this knowledge.

Alaska Highway and Defence

IF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SHOULD decide hemisphere defence has made it necessary to speed construction of the road through British Columbia to Alaska—as is being suggested at the United States capital—one American journalist contends that "the way is just about open for immediate action." It will be recalled, incidentally, that Congress recently passed a law extending the life of the International Commission for four years. The American group, headed by energetic Congressman Warren Magnuson of Washington State, has already finished its preliminary work, and it is expected that by next month all the initial surveys will have been completed to a stage at which the governments at Ottawa and Washington—if thought sufficiently urgent—might be able to discuss the project from a practical standpoint. Hon. Charles Stewart is chairman of the Canadian half of the joint commission.

Developments in Europe since the invasion of the Low Countries, now more involved than ever by the entrance of Italy into the conflict, have changed the entire outlook at Washington. Already the defence of Alaska is a subject of intensive debate among navy, military and air officials, the general consensus of opinion being that the air arm there must be speedily equipped and the earlier program widened to meet the new implications of an obviously spreading war. Aviation experts of the United States, therefore, are emphasizing the point that the air defence of Alaska cannot be considered effective and complete until—as one Washington correspondent has observed—"there is some overland connection between the territory and the homeland." It is the reference to this factor which has attracted new attention to the project in which British Columbia has a direct interest.

We are natural snobs. Note how an ignored nobody awes and scares us when he gets a big office.

Hannibal has crossed the Alps. Yes, we know it's old stuff; but it's a relief to mention one fact that isn't changed by the time it gets into print.

KEEP MARKET OPEN

From Edmonton Journal
The federal government's decision to keep the Winnipeg Grain Exchange open for at least the balance of the current crop year, which ends on July 31, was to be expected. Even if, as has been contended in many quarters, it is advisable to suspend ordinary marketing arrangements under war conditions and have Canadian export business handled altogether by the wheat board, this is not the time to take that step. There is nothing definite to show that either the Canadian grower or the Allied cause has suffered as yet by allowing the exchange to keep on doing business. But, if a change is to be made, it is obviously desirable to postpone this until the deliveries of the new crop are about to begin.

Parallel Thoughts

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.—Luke 9:24.
Their blood is shed in confirmation of the noblest claim—the claim to feed upon immortal truth, to walk with God, and be divinely free.—Cowper.

As I See It

By ELMORE PHILPOTT

IS PACIFIC PEACE POSSIBLE?

SOMETIMES IT TAKES a real epoch-making crisis, like that of the moment, to remind all of us that all human government depends, in the last analysis, on force. The policeman in the average North American town may very rarely be in evidence. But the certainty that he would be, in certain circumstances, makes his preventive power effective just the same. So with international force.

Here on the Pacific coast it is hard to grasp the true reality of the Battle of France, and Mussolini's carefully-timed stab in the back. We look out across the almost unbelievably beautiful waters and think to ourselves, well, here at least is a little refuge, here at least men can still live as civilized human beings.

We forget that if the force collapsed, which for hundreds of years has kept our world relatively comfortable, that all the world, especially this Pacific coast, would almost overnight become so changed that we would have to pinch ourselves to realize that we were really awake, and that what we were seeing was not some awful nightmare.

To be specific: If the American and British navies were to be effectively destroyed, or forced for any other reason to withdraw from the Pacific, the world would see one of the greatest mass migrations in all the history of man. In the 10 years before the Japanese seizure of Manchuria millions upon millions of Chinese poured into that rather harsh land, carrying nothing but their children, a few crude tools, and odds and ends of food and clothing. The Japanese have not gone into their newly-conquered country in any such numbers, because the Japanese, unlike the Chinese, loathe cold countries. But both Japanese and Chinese would come to the Pacific coast of North America by millions if the political obstacles to their coming were removed. We cannot too clearly keep that in mind.

The Oriental peoples do not believe that the white man has more moral right to final exclusive possession of this part of the earth than the white man thought the red Indian had. The white man got in because the red man was not able to keep him out. The so-called yellow man, in his millions, would similarly come if anything ever happened to the white man's navies, as happened to the armies of Rome when the Huns ravaged civilized Europe once before.

MORE PEACE LESS WAR

WHEN WE THINK in terms of the fundamental basis of law and order we discover another principle—at least as important as that all human government depends for application on force. It is the principle that the more any law or arrangement is supported by the moral sense of the people it concerns, the less will be the degree of force necessary to uphold it.

The law against burglary is supported by all but a minute fraction of the people of any so-called civilized country. But the law against bringing goods into Canada from the United States, or into England from France, without paying the duty on them demanded by the government is a good example of what happens to a law which fewer of the people believe to be basically just. Before there was the $100 free tourist privilege most males and almost all females used to flout that particular law. I was always interested in the psychology of this process and remember asking one ordinarily extremely honest young lady, aged nine, why she hid the new socks she was bringing home from Seattle when the customs man came around. She looked at me with indignation. "I paid for them once already. Why should I pay for them again?"

FIGHT FIRE WITH WATER

RIGHT NOW I THINK the Pacific Ocean is the most important ocean in the world. For I think that Britain and the United States have an outside chance to make a counter move against Hitler and his assassin partner which might be as decisive in this World War as stopping the Germans and Italians from taking Paris.

The main United States navy is concentrated in the Pacific for two reasons: The first is the so-called one-ocean principle of American naval strategy, dating from the great theorist Admiral Mahan, whose basic idea was "never split your battle fleet in a real war." The second is that the United States fears that Japan might try to grab some of the rich prizes lying around relatively loose, since Hitler's invasion of Holland.

The United States is obviously getting ready to participate against Hitler and Mussolini, at least by air and sea. But the extent of the effective participation will be limited by relationships between the U.S. and Japan in the Pacific.

It is no secret that the Soviet and Japan are negotiating right now for an arrangement about relative spheres of influence in the Pacific. The agreement signed Saturday last, ending a vexatious border dispute, is an indication that progress is being made. Chiang Kai-shek has made a plain but unnoticed appeal to the U.S. and Britain to join with Russia and intervene for peace in China. It seems to me that really intelligent statesmanship in Washington and London might make such the occasion for a much more far-reaching agreement in the Pacific. If we were all really free to throw everything we have into fighting the Nazi menace in Europe we could establish secure peace everywhere, including the Far East.

No reasonable price is too high for securing immediate Pacific peace.

No nation is self-sufficient in essential raw materials. Fair access to natural resources from other nations is, therefore, an indispensable condition of permanent peace.—Former Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

Politics is defined as the science of government, but it takes a seance to figure out the next moves of the game.

Partizan Attacks Receive Their Answer

From Toronto Star, May 31

IT IS AN AXIOM of responsible government that the government is responsible. It is responsible for its mistakes as well as for its achievements. It is responsible for the mistakes of others if it adopts the program they suggest.

If, for example, a Canadian government follows the advice of a British government in a war effort which can hardly, after all, be conducted on an every-man-for-himself basis but must depend upon some centralized plan, the Canadian government is, nevertheless, responsible to a degree for the result. If the British plan was inadequate, if the British government which formulated it afterwards lost the confidence of Britain, if the plan was based on the presumption of a long war rather than blitzkrieg, the Canadian government which co-operated as requested in the plan as formulated is, to a degree, responsible to the Canadian people for having done so.

DRASTIC ACTION

It is not responsible, of course, for having failed to manufacture certain war machines whose plans and specifications were not released by Britain for its use. But in a general way it is responsible for not "going ahead on its own"—although that would have been said by most of its present critics if it had done so would have been as bad as anything they are now saying. In relation to this subject, the Globe and Mail offers the following comment:

"The excuse that Ottawa has been taking its cue from Westminster is not now valid. If it showed anything, it was that Canada's government did not regard itself as competent to act independently. Since all that Westminster stood for up to a few weeks ago has been repudiated, Ottawa is clearly out on a limb and cannot recover its standing without drastic action."

The drastic action has certainly been forthcoming, as readers of recent dispatches from Ottawa are well aware. But if Canada had gone ahead with its own program in the first place, if its government had regarded itself as competent to act independently, what an outcry there would have been from those who have protested against autonomous action on the part of Ottawa.

AN APPRECIATION

To the Editor:—Through your valuable paper I would like, in the name of all the members of the Gorge Unit of the Red Cross, to thank everyone who so kindly contributed towards the success of our garden party, held last Wednesday afternoon in the Gorge City Park. Particularly would I like to thank "the men who worked so hard to have everything ready for us, water boiling (and lots of it), and tables all set out amidst the natural beauties of the park."

To all the people who sent donations of money, cakes, etc., we say—thank you! It is very encouraging to such a small group of workers to receive so much outside help for such a very worthwhile cause, and we certainly appreciate it.

MRS. F. C. BOAM,
Secretary-treasurer.

AN EXCHANGE SUGGESTION

To the Editor:—Now that the tourist season is nearly here I would like to make a suggestion for the exchange on money. Instead of individual merchants, auto camp, tourist homes, etc., having to keep posted on the rates of exchange and make change at their points of business (and with tourists perhaps expecting 20 per cent on their money, as that is what they take from us in the States), why not simply matters by setting up money-changing depots at points of landing? Victoria, Sidney and Nanaimo are our main points of entry for tourists on Vancouver Island and a publicity bureau booth could handle it with a "Get Your Canadian Money here" sign. The tourist would get his money in a lump sum and the merchants, etc., would have Canadian money to handle—which, after all, is legal tender here.

When you land in foreign countries, particularly in South America, money-changers in the vicinity of the docks take your funds and give you the equivalent in the money of the country. Wouldn't this be a good plan for Canada just now and an extra boost for our Publicity Bureau if they took it up and put it through?

The kids, say the psychologists, is not a natural caress. Can it be man has at last found a way to improve upon nature?

part of Canada, and who would have been even more than usually vocal in a war which is being waged at such a long distance from the Dominion and at such a short distance from the Mother Country—a country experienced in military matters as Canada is not.

Only two months ago an election was held in which there were three clearly defined issues: the government's war record, the leadership of Mr. King, and the formation of a national government. The government's record was confirmed, Mr. King's leadership was confirmed, and the national government proposal was defeated by a vote of the people which gave Mr. King the largest majority any leader has ever achieved in the history of Canada. Yet for 10 days or more the opposition has kept nagging away at the Prime Minister and his government with the suggestion that the very things which the electors so overwhelmingly approved should now be repudiated; that Mr. King should go and that a national government should be formed. As Hon. Mr. Power put it last Thursday in Parliament, the party which was shut out at the front door by the electors has been endeavoring to get in at the side door in defiance of the electors.

THE ANSWER

After all the time that has been wasted in this effort, there was every justification for devoting an hour to setting the record straight as the Liberals in the House did Thursday. They showed doubt where they stand; and reaffirmed in the most emphatic way their confidence in the government and its leader. The suggestion that it was a display of "bitter partisan politics" is an impudent thing to come from those who make it.

Partisan politics have been played for many days by an opposition which has spared no effort in purely partisan attacks upon the administration and especially upon Mr. King who has the complete confidence of his followers. When these attacks are resented and answered, the government supporters are accused of partisanship.

It was time they were answered, and the emphatic nature of the answer should not be lost upon those whom it condemned.

A VETERAN'S PLEA

To the Editor:—An item in today's Times states: Men of ages 19 to 45 in A, B or C categories wanted for the army. Why enlist untrained men in B or C category when there are thousands of war veterans anxious to enlist? Of course those under 45 have the opportunity, but there are very few veterans under 45. The majority may be a little underweight, due to existing on half rations the past few years, but this is easily remedied.

Another item states that Canadian troops had relieved British garrisons in the West Indies. Here again, war veterans could just as well be used as front line troops.

Calais-Dover Tunnel After the War?

Science Service
THE OFT-PROPOSED, but never begun, tunnel under the English Channel is discussed currently by the European correspondent of the Army and Navy Journal. His prediction is that construction of this underground route between Calais and Dover will be "the first great work undertaken after the present war." If the tunnel existed now it would be possible to send 150 trains per day in each direction—transport two divisions of troops per day with all their material from England to France—or from France to England—releasing a large number of transport ships and destroyers required to guard them. Provided, it had not been blown up or had its entrances and exits wiped out by bombing. As to the vulnerability of such a tunnel, the argument is that it would be safer than the Kiel Canal, which has not suffered in the present war. Once the English Channel tunnel were completed and in operation, the next tunnelling project foreseen would be under the Straits of Gibraltar, joining Europe and Africa.

Poverty is the greatest of all subversive influences. Mrs. Peter Nielson, Canadian Member of Parliament from Saskatchewan.

Douglas Street Parking

Council to Try to Amend Parallel Plan

The Douglas Street parking question became a problem in minorities again today. Yesterday, after hearing 20 letters from as many merchants unanimously opposed to continuation of the parallel system, the council gave 6 to 3 support to Alderman Archie Wills' resolution calling for amendment of the new traffic by-law to eliminate parallel parking on the affected section of Douglas.

The statutory amendment to the by-law will be introduced at the next council meeting. If it can secure a two-thirds majority on the second reading, it will pass. But with 11 men on the council, two-thirds requires an affirmative vote of eight.

Mayor Andrew McGavin and Alderman T. W. Hawkins were absent when the Wills' motion carried yesterday with the support of Aldermen D. D. McTavish, B. J. Gadsden, J. A. Worthington, W. L. Morgan, S. H. Okell and the sponsor.

In the negative were Aldermen Ed. Williams, W. H. Davies, and acting Mayor R. A. C. Dewar.

LETTERS READ

Assistant city clerk W. P. Wright read vigorously through the 20 letters filed by F. W. Woolworth Co., T. G. G. Shop, Dick's Dress Shoppe, Ideal Meat Market, McDonald Electric Ltd., Pollock Bros., McLean's Bakery, Kelway's Cafe Ltd., Ideal Barber Shop, Ideal Cigar Store, Stuart's Meat Market, Coast Hardware, Henry Webb, A. H. Hartley, Peden Bros. Ltd., The Pet Shop, Cross Stores Ltd., John Cochrane, Bank of Nova Scotia and G. H. Dorman Ltd.

All writers declared their businesses were suffering adverse results from reduced patronage owing to curtailment of curb space since elimination of angle parking.

Alderman Wills introduced his motion for amendment of the parking regulations affecting Douglas Street in view of the letters presented.

Alderman Okell suggested the matter be referred back to the public works committee and the police commission for report at the next council meeting. He suggested it would be of little value to endorse the Wills' resolution and then find when the vote came to be taken, insufficient aldermen were prepared to support it through second reading.

He referred to the "propaganda letters" submitted last week by the police chief, fire chief and city engineer in favor of parallel parking on Douglas.

NOT IN PUBLIC INTEREST

"I take exception to statements in the chief's letter that the move is in the general interest of the public, because it is not," Alderman Okell said.

He said the council was changing the venue of business from Douglas Street and had no right to take such action. He advocated angle parking at a reduced angle.

Alderman Davies said all cities from Port Angeles to Portland he had visited last week were adhering to parallel parking.

Alderman Morgan contradicted him on Port Angeles and said Portland Streets were too narrow for anything but parallel parking. The merchants trusted the City Council, and the council disregarded that trust, said Alderman John Worthington as he appealed for return to angle parking.

Alderman Wills again drew attention to the position of businesses on Douglas and the effect of the new parking legislation, which, he suggested, would drive the merchant from the most highly-taxed section of Victoria.

GREATER SPACE

Alderman Williams, public works committee chairman, reported his committee had sketches made to determine how much more space was available at an angle than parallel. A total of 18 cars could park at 45 degrees where 11 parked parallel, he said. If business concerns were in jeopardy as they claimed, they deserved sympathy, he added.

Time was an important element to a businessman losing money, said Alderman Gadsden as he called for revision of the by-law without contention.

Alderman Worthington again called for action in accordance with the wishes of the merchants. Alderman Davies asked if it would be advisable to have merchants join the police commission and public works committee at a meeting. Experts had been consulted on the traffic question, he said in reference to the police chief's report, and he thought the aldermen should follow what the experts said.

Sell Cheap Lots For City Homes

Victoria's special $50 lots, listed when the city sought to take advantage of improvement tax rebates allowed under the National Housing Act on construction over $2,000 and under $4,000, prior to May 31, will continue in force. The lots will be available at that price only, however, if purchasers agree to build for immediate use. A proposal to hold the title in escrow until actual construction is started was suggested by the lands commissioner. Policy on the cheap lots was settled after the council had given approval to five sales. By them a lot on Avebury between Kings Road and Ryan returned $50, another on the northwest of Hillside and Graham yielded $200, a third on Fernwood between Kings and Haultain brought $300, a fourth on Simcoe between Montreal and Oswego netted $75, and another property on Bay between Richmond and Shelbourne was sold for $750.

A vote of condolence to the family, and one of sympathy with the federal government in its loss, proposed by Ald. Archie Wills, were passed by the City Council yesterday as its members stood in silent tribute to the memory of the late Norman McL. Rogers, Minister of National Defence.

John Day's letter criticizing Mayor Andrew McGavin's remarks about office workers of the city staff being available for grass cutting was tabled by the council until the mayor's return. Ald. Ed. Williams expressed the view the mayor was joking when he passed the remark.

Alderman W. H. Davies suggested yesterday that the city take the lead in placing in foster homes child refugees from war-torn Europe. The issue was one for national consideration, Alderman B. J. Gadsden thought. It was being discussed as one of the items on the agenda of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities. Alderman S. H. Okell reported.

Sale of property near the Store Street waterfront was reserved for garbage crusher purposes, the council decided yesterday. Lawton & Davis, who stated owners wished to purchase property there, will be informed of the council's decision.

The city parks department is trying the new $200 sprinkler system it initiated for the boulevards more in hope than in confidence. Alderman Okell, parks committee chairman, informed the council.

Removal of a cherry tree at Carberry Gardens was ordered on the recommendation of the public works committee, which also secured approval for payment of sick pay to two employees, for amendment of the building by-law to cover basement suites constructed in old houses and for certain recommendations for loading zones in town. The chairman of the committee and the city engineer were instructed to buy a grass cutter to cut roadside hay and the engineer's department was given authority to proceed with a 350-foot storm sewer on Royal Street at Rockland Avenue at a cost of $511. The committee also advised the council to instruct the city solicitor to inform the solicitor for Mrs. Louise Done the corporation admitted no liability for her recent accident.

The Legion of Frontiersmen was given the moral support of the city for that body's volunteer ambulance training work here.

Victoria has no power to contribute to the care of privately-owned Loretto Hall or its topiary gardens, the council was informed by the solicitor.

The invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to the Strawberry Festival parade tomorrow evening was accepted.

The water board and city solicitor were asked to deal with the C.N.R.'s request for renewal of the agreement covering the supply of city water to Milnes Landing.

The former equipment cost $1,200, and is valuable in the treatment of infantile paralysis cases. The oxygen tent also is useful where breathing is difficult and for cardiac cases in general.

Both pieces of equipment have been installed in the isolation unit, which will be used for general hospital work when not in use for isolation work.

Arrangements are being completed for the organizing of a public subscription drive for funds with which to complete the new wing, and this campaign will start on July 7 after directors of the hospital have completed their quiet canvass of private citizens.

Examiner

Dr. Percy C. Hull, organist of Hereford Cathedral, England, will arrive in Victoria on Thursday next to conduct examinations for the Royal Schools of Music. Owing to a larger number of entrants than usual, Dr. Hull will be fully occupied morning and afternoon until June 21. On June 22 Dr. Hull will proceed to Duncan for further examinations, and from there to Ladysmith, Nanaimo and Courtenay, before returning to Vancouver. Dr. Hull will be remembered by many as one of the adjudicators at the Victoria Musical Festival in May, 1934.

Defence League Discusses War

The Victoria Division, Defence of Canada League, last night endorsed a letter from the Native Sons of Canada, Victoria Assembly No. 1, to be sent to the Department of National Defence at Ottawa, advocating formation of reserve militia regiments in the Dominion.

A resolution was passed favoring Canada's occupation of Greenland until the duration of the war, or until the sovereignty of Denmark was restored.

With regard to the large number of aliens in British Columbia, national registration of all residents in Canada should be taken at once, the meeting agreed.

The division favored the bringing in of refugee children from Great Britain, but felt that Canada should make all efforts to see that the children were of British stock.

The meeting went on record to suggest to the Dominion government that on all public works employment, preference should be given to Canadian and British subjects.

A letter of condolence will be sent to the family of the late Hon. Norman McLeod Rogers, Minister of National Defence, who was killed in an airplane crash yesterday in the east.

R. Hayward, president, was in the chair.

VICTORIANS GAIN ACADEMIC LAURELS

Further academic laurels have fallen to Victoria's scholastics with James Humphreys securing his doctorate from Rutgers University and a trio of Victorians advancing in medicine at the University of Toronto.

Dr. Humphreys is one of three out-of-state students who received their Ph.D.'s at yesterday's convocation at Rutgers, where 53 advanced degrees were conferred.

The students successful in Toronto Varsity's May examinations included D. M. Boyd, who attained distinction in the study of biology at Victoria College; H. S. Ford, another Victoria College graduate, and F. M. Jameson, who passed his third year tests, while the other two were successful in second year. Boyd securing the Baple Scholarship as the result of his work during the term just concluded.

"Canada lost an able administrator."

This evening, Hal Purdy will oppose him, pitching for the latter team.

trator, a patriotic citizen and an eloquent exponent of the British tradition when Norman McLeod Rogers, her Minister of Defence, came to his death in the crash of an army plane in Ontario. She has lost Mr. Rogers, moreover, at a time when she has need for such men as he.

"His whole life was characteristic of what may be accomplished by earnestness, industry and high faith in a democracy such as the Dominion typifies. Physically he was no giant and his health was never of the best. Nevertheless in the last war, as a boy of 20, he unhesitatingly abandoned his studies at Acadia University and volunteered for active service. He returned from the war in broken health, invalided home, and was advised to plan a future free from strain and heavy responsibility.

"It was characteristic of Norman Rogers that he died 'on duty'."

Weddings

ELSE-COMPTON-LUNDIE

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Church, Quamichan, last evening, when May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Compton Lundie, Lakes Road, Duncan, became the bride of Lieut. Jim Else, eldest son of Mrs. Frank Else, Vancouver. Rev. T. M. Hughes was the officiating clergyman, and the service was choral, with Mr. B. W. Clements at the organ. During the signing of the register Mrs. A. Hassell sang "All Joy Be Thine. Decorations in the church were under the direction of Mrs. E. C. Trench. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a model gown of pastoral white, of Chantilly lace over satin, ending in a short train. The finger-tip veil was fastened with clusters of orange blossoms, and the Colonial bouquet was of pink roses and sweet peas.

Miss Suzanne Hadwen was bridesmaid, wearing a dress of white eyelet embroidered organdie over blue satin, while off-the-face hat lined with blue, and bouquet of red roses. Sally Hughes made a dainty little flower girl, dressed in blue net, with a wreath of flowers on her hair. Outside the church a guard of honor was formed by officers and men of the 62nd Field Battery, Durcan. Capt. R. M. Ferguson supported the groom, and the ushers were Lieut. A. M. Appleby, Lieut. A. F. ## Women's Council Discuss Cost of Living

Also Traffic Safety Education In B.C. Schools

Alleged mounting costs of living occupied the attention of the Local Council of Women at its monthly meeting, held at the Y.W.C.A. yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. A. E. Hopkins presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. W. Gibson.

Mrs. E. Rayfuse introduced the subject of living costs in her report on clothing and rent prices, which she had investigated at the request of the council. According to her report E. W. Griffith of the provincial relief department, in the course of an interview, had stated that his department watched very closely the cost of living, making a survey every month. His investigation revealed that the present cost of living was less than in 1936, although it was 5 or 6 per cent higher than at the start of the war.

Mrs. K. McAllister reported having drafted letters to the Food Controller in Montreal, asking reasons for the rise in sugar prices, and to the secretary of the local Retail Merchants' Association, asking the reason for the marked difference between Victoria and Vancouver sugar prices. Miss D. Ashdown, representing the Housewives' League, claimed that food and beverage profits were up 27.9 per cent this year.

On Mrs. McAllister's announcement that the Victoria Co-operative Consumers' League had a full cannery equipment available for use, Mrs. Rayfuse and her committee were asked to get in touch with the women's institutes to see if some of the season's surplus fruit and vegetables might be put up in the interests of conservation of food resources.

In her report on literature and films, Mrs. Wm. McManus attested to the successful effort made by her committee to have an undesirable magazine removed from all Vancouver Island news stands. She spoke of the assistance given in the matter by the chief of police and Mr. G. A. Yardley, collector of customs, to whom the council will tender thanks by letter for their co-operation.

At the close of her comprehensive report on traffic education in the schools, Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin, chairman of the traffic safety committee, moved a resolution commending the Provincial Department of Education for its progressive policy in introducing "some measure of traffic safety education in the high school curriculum, and asking that this be extended as far as possible."

Although to teach the subject properly, 40 periods, with a further three months' instruction in actual automobile driving, should be allowed, and the giving of credits was important. Mrs. MacLaurin continued it was gratifying that British Columbia led the way in Canada in traffic safety education, by being the first province to make it a required subject in the senior high school curriculum.

Although yesterday was the last regular meeting of the council until September, members were reminded of the special meeting to be held at the Y.W.C.A. next Monday afternoon under council auspices, when Dr. D. H. Williams, head of the venereal disease control work in Vancouver, would address a meeting, to which the interested public is welcomed.

Jubilee Alumnae To Furnish Suite

As further evidence of its active interest in the new wing, the Jubilee Hospital Nurses' Alumnae meeting last night at the Nurses' Home decided to furnish a suite, consisting of cloakroom and lounge. Putnam, was appointed to meet Dr. T. W. Walker, medical superintendent, and discuss plans for the furnishing.

The meeting framed the following announcement for circulation among members: "All alumnae members, not otherwise registered, who can offer their services for work in a national emergency are asked to telephone Mrs. J. H. Russell, G5199, as soon as possible."

The meeting approved the purchase of a radio for the eye-room in the Strathcona ward. Mrs. W. G. Tucker, convener of the dance committee, reported that a gratifying sum had been raised as the result of the dance held last Friday night at the Yacht Club.

Appeal to Women to Cut Out Gossip, Hoarding

LONDON—Calling women to conserve Britain's resources, a manifesto entitled "Women and the Home Front" has been issued here this week as the first step in a campaign to eliminate waste, gossip and hoarding.

Seeking to apply the spirit of moral rearmament to their house-keeping by making the best possible use of money and materials, lady mayors of 100 cities, including Bristol, Belfast, Hull, Leeds, Leicester, Newcastle, Nottingham, Portsmouth, Sheffield and York, and many distinguished women, including Lady Elphinstone, sister of Queen Elizabeth; Lady Davidson, M.P., and Lady Snowden, issued this manifesto simultaneously in Britain and France. One hundred and fifty thousand copies have already been distributed through homes, women's organizations, factories and shops.

"In this spirit," they claim, "we can fight to conquer the fear, greed and selfishness which are the ultimate causes of war itself. Such a spirit cannot be rationed. It is vital a need as our daily bread. If we are to build up a world where we and our children can rejoice in the freedom and fullness of life."

The determinations to which all women are being called are:

"To carry out the spirit as well as the letter of regulations with regard to buying."

"To consider the needs of others and refrain from selfish hoarding."

"To make frank inquiries if we are puzzled by a rise in price, instead of suspecting profiteering and gossiping about it."

"To co-operate with our tradespeople by paying bills promptly."

"To recognize difficulties caused by shortage of staff; to wait patiently for our turn and choose quickly when it comes."

"To take pride in thrift; to remember that many of our daily necessities are brought from overseas at the peril of men's lives, and to see that nothing is wasted or carelessly used."

"We believe that the women of Britain have a special responsibility in applying this spirit of moral rearmament to the daily life of the country. As an immediate step we need to make the best use of money and materials. Knowing that 70 per cent of the nation's shopping is done by women, we can begin by accepting the responsibility that lies on our side of the counter."

Plans to raise funds for its share of the purchase of the $100,000 Bolingbroke bomber which the National Chapter I.O.D.E. hopes to present to the Allied forces, were made by the Municipal Chapter I.O.D.E. at its executive meeting yesterday morning.

The members accepted the suggestion made by the National Chapter to appeal to the public and members of the order for donations of old gold and old silver, and the firm of F. W. Francis has offered to receive donations on behalf of the chapter.

Red Cross Geared To New Tempo

A steady flow of new supplies is going overseas as a result of the Canadian Red Cross recent appeal to women throughout the country to increase their activities, Mrs. Wallace Campbell, national chairman of the Women's War Work Committee, announced yesterday.

"The response has been marvelous," she said. "Our enormous stocks of hospital supplies in England have been made available to the British and French Red Cross without stint. The conflict now raging makes our fullest co-operation and generosity not only necessary but imperative."

"Articles are going out in thousands to relieve the urgent calls, the appalling losses of British and French Red Cross supplies, as well as the terrific number of sick and injured refugees and the wounded of our Allied forces, makes replacements of our stocks a pressing responsibility."

WORD OF CAUTION

Along with her tribute to the way the women of Canada have rallied to the call, Mrs. Campbell gives a word of caution. "To meet our needs wisely and to make both effort and funds most effective everyone should bear in mind the fact that the most needed articles should be produced first. All work conveners should endeavor to use up all the materials they have on hand for the purpose for which they were intended."

Mrs. Campbell advised women to "be patient." This war and its demands made equal call upon everyone, she said. "Remember," she continued, "there are many things greatly needed by the Red Cross of the Allies that we women cannot make with our own hands. Provision must be made for these. Let the true spirit of service prevail. Do the job nearest at hand, grateful for the privilege of serving our Empire and pray that our small effort may contribute to the alleviation of the horrible sufferings of our own people and our Allies."

"It is necessary now as it was when we began our work to make every article as perfect as possible. There must be no slackening in the quality of our work."

LOCAL SCHOOL'S WAR RECORD GIVEN

The war record of University School at Mount Tolmie was one of the most notable in Canada. Rev. G. H. Scarrett, headmaster, told the Old Boys' Association of the school at a meeting in Vancouver last week.

Two hundred and ten boys of the school joined up in the last war and 72 of them died, he said.

More than 70 graduates, carrying on the school's military tradition, had already joined His Majesty's armed forces since the outbreak of the present war.

Other speakers heard were Dr. A. O. MacRae, a former headmaster, and A. McCrery, who sent five sons to the school and now has some of his grandchildren there.

L. C. Crery, Vancouver, was elected president of the Old Boys. Vice-presidents named were Benton S. McKid and Allan M. Mercer, Vancouver, and Major F. M. Cabeldu and B. B. Mathews, Victoria. W. R. G. Wenman, sportsmaster of the school, was chosen secretary.

By PETE SALLAWAY

THERE WAS little room today for questioning Lawson Little's rank as one of the great golfers of the day. Gene Sarazen's right to a place in the game's hall of fame, and the recent United States open championship as one of the most dramatic and hectic in the history of the competition.

Little's defeat of the game veteran who twice had captured the event, baffled those who long had claimed that the former Californian, winner of the British and United States amateur titles in 1934 and 1935, never would reach the top as a medal play star. The finish of the regular play Saturday was climaxed by Sarazen's amazing stretch finish in deadlock Little, as 23-year-old Ed (Porky) Oliver of Hornell, N.Y., sat heartbroken in the clubhouse. Oliver, himself possessor of a leading score, was also in possession of a message from the tournament committee he had been disqualified for starting ahead of schedule.

One of the most remarkable players taking part in the recent U.S. open was John Joseph Burke. The oldest contestant, he played golf when a 150-yard drive with the old Acoba or Muscogee ball was considered good. Burke taught in Philadelphia when there was not a half dozen American professionals.

The Immortal Johnny McDermott, who was to become the first home-bred to win the U.S. open, was a caddy at the time. Burke has lost track of the U.S. opens in which he was figured since his first in 1907—when Alec Ross won at Philadelphia.

He tied with Harry Vardon, Jock Hutchison and Leo Diegel at 296 for the runner-up position when big Ted Ray prevailed at Inverness in 1920.

Here's Jack Burke, who confesses to 52 years and who has been attached to the River Oaks Country Club of Houston since it was built in 1924, competing at Cleveland in 1940.

Iron-grey Jack Burke insists he will attempt to qualify for the open as long as he can swing a club and will attend it as long as he can navigate.

"A teacher of golf learn a lot," he explains. "If you stay at your club teaching long enough, you are likely to wind up believing your way is the best. And a teacher can be wrong, you know. Every year I learn I have long been taking money under false pretenses."

Jimmy Demaret served under Burke for two years. Burke considers the Brae Burn fashion plate the finest player he ever saw.

Burke had a hand in the development of Harry Cooper and it was the old-timer who advised Dick Metz to try his luck in California winter tournaments.

"Metz had to borrow $10,000 to make the trip, and got $900 of it back in his first tournament," beams the veteran.

Improved conditions and equipment have helped, of course, but practice and greater opportunity to get into stern competition is the principal reason for the phenomenal scores of today, according to Burke.

"We didn't get into more than two or three tournaments a year in the old days," he explains. "Now many of these boys play in 30."

With instructors and inspiring figures like Jack Burke, there is little wonder why Texas produces the world's most skillful shot-makers—Jimmy Demaret, Dick Metz, Harry Cooper, Byron Nelson, Ralph Guldahl, Ben Hogan and the Mangrum...

The major league pennant races are tighter than a new pair of shoes and just as fancy to look at. But they don't seem to be going anywhere.

The National League struggle today is right back in the complicated spot it got into on May 27.

Brooklyn's baffling Dodgers pushed past the Pittsburgh Pirates 8 to 7 yesterday and into first place in the percentage standings of the senior circuit by a single point. They have won 29 games and lost 13 for .689.

The Cincinnati Reds, who were idle yesterday, have won 31 games and lost 14 for a .689 percentage.

What's more the Reds still are half a game in front on won-lost reckoning. This is the tangle these same clubs were in a couple of weeks ago.

The American League Squabble is nearly as bad, the Boston Red Sox holding only a small percentage margin over Cleveland Indians with whom they are even in games won and lost. The Detroit Tigers are only a single game behind and the fourth place New York Yankees three.

The status quo of the junior circuit leaders was preserved by the weatherman yesterday.

In the only game played in the St. Louis Browns spanked the Washington Senators 7 to 4 and moved into sixth place in the standings.

The two games played in the National League were hitting exhibitions.

There were 25 hits in the Brooklyn-Pittsburgh game and 28 in the one at St. Louis in which Boston-Bees crushed the Cardinals 12 to 2.

Oppose Conscription Of Only Manpower

EDMONTON (CP)—The Edmonton Farmers of Alberta oppose conscription of manpower in Canada until wealth and industry have been "completely and indiscreetly conscripted," states a resolution adopted at the annual convention held here.

The principle of a federation of nations as a step in the evolution toward a democratic world government was approved and the convention decided to urge the Dominion government to investigate the practicability of a federal union of nations.

Such a union should be "one of the objectives to be sought at the end of the second Great War to prevent intolerable devastation of western civilization at any future time."

Navy Surprise

All four teams in the Rithet Cup baseball game are on an even footing today through Navy's 7 to 6 defeat of the top-notch Eagles last night at Athletic Park.

Each team has lost one game and won one.

A three-run attack in the eighth frame, carried the trailing boys in navy through to victory. Navy had a 3 to 1 lead at the end of the fourth, but the birdmen went out in front 4 to 3 in the next frame with a three-run barrage and then made it 6 to 3 in the following session with a two-run attack.

In their half of the seventh Navy whittled the lead to two runs and a trio of tallies in the last of the eighth won the game.

But the fixture went farther than the eighth frame, however. Eagles came back in the first of the ninth to tie the score, but when Jack Rogers, Navy's second sacker, was beamed with a hard-thrown ball in the last of the ninth, the game was called. As a result the score reverted back to the eighth, the last completed inning, where it stood 7 to 6 in favor of the sailors.

Young Vreeland, Navy hurler, did a fine job on hillcock, allowing only six hits. Les Stobo started on the mound for Eagles and gave up 11 safe blows and walked four.

Two Navy players were injured and both were reported as "resting comfortably" at St. Joseph's Hospital today. They were Rogers, who was beamed, and Davis, youthful shortstop, who collided with Patrick, a clubmate, when they both went after the same fly ball.

Senior Softball Leaders to Play

Victoria Longshoremen, senior A softball leaders, will go up against the second-place Cameron Lumber Company squad tonight at Athletic Park while out at Victoria West Park, Garrison will play Brundson's Veterans.

Both games will start at 6.15 and are expected to provide a lot of action.

UPSETS LAST NIGHT
B and C section games last night were upsets with leaders of both divisions being beaten.

Leader of the B section, Harknett Fuel, took a 5 to 3 defeat at the hands of the fourth-place Navy team at Admirals Road.

At Victoria West, Western Air Command beat the C section leaders, Lemon Gonnason, 7 to 5.

In the B section upset, sailors took a two-run lead in the first inning, and were never in arrears. Batteries were: Navy—Henderson and Smith; Harknett Fuel—McBride and Kennedy.

Lemon Gonnason stepped out in front by two runs in their opening inning, but the airmen scored four in the third inning to take over the lead, which they kept.

In the only game played in the St. Louis Browns spanked the Washington Senators 7 to 4 and moved into sixth place in the standings.

The two games played in the National League were hitting exhibitions.

There were 25 hits in the Brooklyn-Pittsburgh game and 28 in the one at St. Louis in which Boston-Bees crushed the Cardinals 12 to 2.

Boxla Uprising

Things were anything but rosy in Victoria box lacrosse circles today. As a matter of fact it is just possible the James Bay and Alerts, senior clubs, would fall to take the floor at the Willows tonight for their scheduled game.

The whole trouble is over the question of referees. At a meeting of the league executive and referees held last night letters protesting certain referees were read from both Alerts and Bays.

The Alerts objected to the work of Brynjolfsson while the Bays stated they would not play with Ross, Ditchburn or Popham working.

League officials appointed Brynjolfsson and Popham to handle tonight's game and this morning the management of the clubs declared they would not take the floor, unless the officials named, were changed.

Alex Mah, secretary of the association, announced he was to meet the team managers this afternoon in an effort to straighten out the difficulty.

Main also stated that under the constitution the teams were bound to abide by the ruling of the officials. He quoted the following section: "Each club through its president and secretary shall sign an agreement to abide by the constitution and accept all rulings and decisions made by the executive in their capacity as administrators of the association matters."

"If the teams fail to take the floor the game will be defaulted and the matter brought up at a future meeting," Mah said.

Tonight's preliminary game is between McLellan's Bakery and Douglas Tire of the junior league. Starting time is set for 7.30.

Tanks Helped Allies Win World War

Yesterday we spoke of the tanks which first took part in warfare in 1916. They were successful on the battlefield, but their success was not complete.

The early tanks were fitted with treads of the tractor type. These gave them the power to pass over rough ground, far from any road. Yet some of them became stuck in shell holes.

A 75-ton French tank of modern design.

The first tank attack brought about the capture of prisoners and trenches, but there were not enough tanks at that time to change the course of the war.

A thousand more tanks were ordered, and in a few months they were ready for action. The new tanks were fitted with thicker armor than the first ones to be put in the field.

Meanwhile French inventors had been working on much the same idea. They planned a lighter type of tank, and factories began to turn them out.

During 1917 tanks were employed in several battles. Each time they won some success, but they did little to bring about an important victory until the Battle of Cambrai in November.

At Cambrai, the tanks were brought into use without giving the usual warning of a barrage. The barrage, or bombardment, was common to battles of the World War. It was a curtain of artillery fire to guard troops who were about to attack. The cost of a barrage is very great—in the Battle of Ypres it was figured that shells to the value of $110,000,000 were fired for this purpose.

At 6 o'clock in the morning, Allied troops near Cambrai made ready to follow a large fleet of 378 tanks. Since there was no barrage, the Germans were not expecting an attack. The machines lumbered forward, and the Germans surrendered or fled in terror. An advance of seven miles was made by the Allies in that attack.

The Second Battle of the Marne has been called the turning point of the World War. It took place in July, 1918, and the French pushed the Germans back several miles. Their victory was due largely to the use of tanks.

From that time forward tanks appeared in almost every battle. More than any other war machine, they explain the defeat of the Germans in the World War.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—We have been married some 20-odd years. Have two children and have had a happy married life. A few years ago, however, my husband contacted an old sweetheart and has been corresponding with her, but he had not seen her for many years because she lives so far from us.

Recently he went on a vacation alone, something he had never done before, and they met and spent the time together. They were gone a week, and when he returned he told me he loved her and wanted to marry her. She has three children, but he said he had weighed the matter carefully between duty and happiness and he had chosen happiness. I am not divorcing him, for I love him too dearly. Am I wrong in keeping him from ruining his business and breaking up our home? Can he in a week's living with her really love her more than his family? I want only his happiness, and I am wondering if I am making a mistake in staying when he wants his freedom.

ANSWER: On the contrary, you are doing your husband the greatest possible service by standing pat and refusing him a divorce, and thus keeping him from throwing away all that he has spent his life in building up, and the day will come when he will thank you for it.

Just now he is suffering from a brainstorm that strikes a lot of middle-aged men and wrecks them unless their wives have sense and courage enough to protect them. Right now your husband may think that he is willing to give up you and his children, forfeit the respect of all who know him and ruin his business for the sake of this woman. But when he has time to think it over and count the cost he will wonder how on earth he ever could have been crazy enough even to consider such a thing.

The best cure for an old love that has got to be a sort of sentimental hangover is to have to spend some time with the heroine of one's boyish romance. Your best play would be to urge your husband to go and spend a month instead of a week with the lady, especially with her children. The chances are a hundred to one he would come home perfectly cured. Anyway, a vacation isn't the right time to test love. Everybody is silly and relaxed and romantic in vacation time, when the moon is shining and the flowers are blooming and one is sloshing over with sentimentality.

HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12

This is a fortunate day in planetary direction. The morning hours are stimulating to industry. It is a date lucky for signing contracts. Women are well directed by the stars.

This is a day most fortunate for women who may expect much love and appreciation under this rule of the stars. It is a happy wedding day that brings long association. Fame for women who perform distinguished public service is forecast.

The seers warn against the dissemination of propaganda that stirs class consciousness or sectional prejudices. Subversive agencies will pursue novel policies that appeal to the young, but patriotism will surmount it. Unless a miracle happens the United States army, with strong aviation forces, will assume unusual activities.

The European war will cause great concern in all parts of the world. Sacrifice of inventors, scientists, poets, painters, musicians, educators and leaders of their fellow men means that civilization is to be retarded for centuries, the seers point out. Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of gain through good investments or inheritance. Happy romances are indicated for many.

Children born on this day probably will be polite, sensitive and studious. Legal and literary talents belong to Gemini natives.

During an annual pagan festival on the Isle of Cheung Chau, off the China coast, huge pillars of bread, 15 to 25 feet high, are built. Natives believe eating a piece from one of these pillars insures them against stomach trouble for an entire year. The loaves are known as Shan Paan.

Local Italians
Disapprove Step

Members of Victoria's small Italian colony were sad today as they considered the plight in which Mussolini had placed the land of their forebears.

"I feel sure I speak for every Italian in Victoria when I say that we are loyal to Canada and her cause in this war and disapprove strongly what Mussolini has done to Italy," said Joseph Balagano, president of the Italian colony, 51 years a resident of Vancouver Island and 80 years of age.

"When I think what a man like that can do to a country like Italy it makes me very sad," he said. "For years I had every sympathy with Mussolini—he did a great deal for the poor people of Italy, but now he has gone too far."

Mr. Balagano feels the war will not last long—he is convinced there will be a revolution in Italy. The people of Italy did not want war—they felt Mussolini had no business to interfere, as he has done, and they will do something about it, he believes.

Mr. Balagano has not been in Italy for more than 50 years. Last year he wound up what business his family left him and now he has no connection there, except a few distant relatives.

"And I'm not sorry," he said today.

DISMISS CASE AGAINST BANK

The action of Shou Yin Mar for $8,000 damages against the Royal Bank of Canada was dismissed in a Supreme Court judgment handed down today by Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson.

Mrs. Mar, wife of the Chinese teller of the bank, claimed the $8,000 damages for alleged conversion by the bank of two cheques each for $8,000, dated March 1 and March 2, 1939, and alternatively for the fraudulent conversion of such cheques and in the further alternative for $8,000 for moneys deposited with the bank.

In his judgment Mr. Justice Robertson reviewed the transactions conducted by plaintiff and her husband in relation to two accounts in the bank from which funds were allegedly transferred. He cited irregularities of the husband in his banking activities, the fact certain documents listing the funds were missing and concluded:

"I hold the bank was entitled to this money."

Recruiting Drive Opens

Army Seeking
3,000 Men in B.C.

The army wants 3,000 men in British Columbia immediately.

This was the word flashed out from District Military Headquarters here today to recruiting centres in key centres of the province as preparations were completed for an intensive drive to fill units up to war strength.

Young, strapping men who can be initiated into the technique of modern mechanized warfare are what the army needs, according to Lieut.-Col. H. E. Goodman, the district recruiting officer.

As the war goes on the demand will be increased and the requirements to fill the units now mobilized and to maintain reinforcements will eventually be up to 10,000 in B.C.

Instructions from headquarters today set the general recruiting drive in action in six main centres: Victoria, Vancouver, Nanaimo, Cranbrook, Nelson-Trail and Vernon-Kelowna.

In each centre there are recruiting staffs fully equipped to take applications from recruits. By Thursday traveling medical boards will be on the job and recruits can take their medicals, including dental tests, on the spot.

As soon as men are passed they will be assigned to training depots and sent to join their units. There is no expense to the recruit.

Men from 19 to 35 are wanted, and whether they are in A, B or C category a spot can be found where they may serve.

The drive starting today marks the first general move for soldiers since the war began nine months ago.

Until now recruiting has been more or less on a selective basis. Many of the men called up were in the nonpermanent militia units.

Civic Finance
Picture Bright

Exceptional gains in tax collection have been paralleled by increases in revenues from sources other than taxation during the first five months of the civic fiscal year, according to figures compiled today by the comptroller's department.

At the end of May collections other than taxation stood at $248,624, a figure $20,408 ahead of the $228,216 listed at the same date in 1939.

Chief contributing factor to the current year's increase is a gain of $11,346 in water revenue over the 1939 five-month total. Also showing gains this year are police court fines, which amount to $7,576, a total $3,450 above that for May 31 last year, and not far below the annual estimate of $9,000. Trades licenses this year also show an exceptional increase of $2,220 for the period in question.

Indicative of continued recuperation is the construction inspection fees, which illustrate continued building activity. General building inspection fees are $488 above the corresponding 1939 total, plumbing fees are up $402 and wiring charges $373.

Collection of tax arrears, coupled with interest and redemption of tax sale purchases for the first five months show an increase of $4 per cent over those up to May 31, 1939. At the end of last month a total of $93,551 had been received on an annual estimate of $275,000. At May 31 last year $38,566 had been paid in on a $292,100 estimate. The actual gain in cash is just under $10,000, a figure which represents the difference between the 34 per cent collected up to the end of last month and the 28.6 per cent collected at May 31 last year.

In the current tax field, the city had, by the end of last month, collected $677,639.38, or 44.5 per cent of the $1,521,362 levy. At the similar date last year collections amounted to $606,948, or 39.2 per cent of the $1,546,525 levy.

A slight reduction in the value of land sales for the first five months was offset by an increase in the collections from sales and rentals as the city completed a favorable financial picture at the end of May.

Parts of Paris
Reported on Fire

NEW YORK (AP)—National Broadcasting Company correspondents in Europe reported today that waves of German bombers were flying over Paris and that part of the city itself was burning this morning.

Fred Bate, NBC correspondent in London, said the French embassy there, still in communication with Paris, had confirmed reports that parts of the capital were aflame.

(The Associated Press reported a smoke pall over Paris this morning, believed to be from fire on the outskirts.)

Many fires, he said, were caused by incendiary bombs. The report said roads leading away from Paris were thronged with refugees.

This, in the opinion of recruiting officers, is partly responsible for a lack of response to the appeal for men in some parts of the province.

"We have all heard it said: 'Oh, I offered myself early in the war, but they didn't need me,'" said an official this morning.

"That is all changed now. The whole aspect of the war has changed. The army needs men and it needs them in hundreds."

Brigadier C. V. Stockwell, the D.O.C., said the present campaign was of the utmost importance to bring the units up to strength. He expressed concern that there had been a lack of response on Vancouver Island to the new call for recruits.

CANADIAN SCOTTISH
The Canadian Scottish Regiment, with the slogan "Vancouver's Own," is anxious to fill up its ranks from the men on the island.

As the general recruiting drive opened the Scottish pepped up their appeal for recruits to bring the unit up to war strength.

The First Battalion is listed for service overseas with the Third Canadian Division. About 500 men in A-category are needed for this unit and categories A, B and C will be taken for the second battalion.

A downtown recruiting office has been opened by the Scottish. Recruits are also being taken in Victoria at the Regimental Depot at the Armouries and by Major A. H. Plowes at Nanaimo.

Recruiting officials indicate there is a prospect of an excellent response for the appeal for recruits in the interior but officers of the Scottish want to get all their men from the island if possible to retain its district identity.

1,000,000 Italians,
Germans in Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—More than 1,000,000 people of Italian or German racial origin were living in Canada at the present time, Conservative Leader Hanson estimated in the House of Commons this afternoon.

He recalled published instructions that Hitler gave his people to organize to strike for the fatherland in foreign lands and drew attention to the large number of Germans who have entered Canada in the past six years.

Mr. Hanson was speaking on Prime Minister Mackenzie King's motion for setting up a Commons committee on Defence of Canada Regulations.

City Publicized
By Drill Team

The Victoria Girls' Drill Team is back in town after a most successful three-day appearance in the Portland Rose Festival, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Thousands of people acclaimed the girls in their performance at the Multnomah Stadium. In street displays and in the grand parade in which the team marched in the queen's section.

Before 25,000 people in the Stadium display, the Oregon Journal said of the team, "The colorful outfit from across the border set a fast pace for other entries with its involved and perfectly executed marching."

The Oregonian said, "Cream of the drill teams, judged by applause, was the Victoria, B.C. Chamber of Commerce entry—a girls' drill team. Their mathematical marching and intricate pedal problems headed the program and took all honors in geometric confusion."

The Oregonian gave the team a four-column spread in their Friday night edition. The picture was taken outside the newspaper office.

The Journal had a three-column picture of Miss Flossie Hughes, captain of the team, presenting Marshall N. Dana of the festival a luscious box of Sanich strawberries, with the rest of the team in the background.

"Strawberries temporarily eclipsed roses in the affections of Mayor Carson, county commissioners and the Journal news staff today, thanks to lavish distribution of choice British Columbia specimens by the Victoria Girls' Drill Team," the newspaper account read.

"The smartly-uniformed marching group of 32 girls are Rose Festival visitors."

Many fires, he said, were caused by incendiary bombs. The report said roads leading away from Paris were thronged with refugees.

OTTAWA (CP)—Flying Officer E. A. Dickson of Vermilion, Alta., piloting a De Havilland Tiger Moth training plane of the Royal Canadian Air Force, was reported lost today in the northern Ontario wilderness in the vicinity of Nagsong.

He was flying the plane from an Ontario point to Winnipeg, the Air Ministry here said. It was presumed the Tiger Moth, used for elementary training in the Commonwealth air training plan, was being sent to some training airfield in the west.

NAKINA, Ont. (CP)—Ontario forestry department planes today soared over the wild country east of here in search of Pilot Dickson.

The pilot was accompanying a squadron of R.C.A.F. planes. Only a light fuel supply was carried in Dickson's Tiger Moth. The lack of floats on the Tiger Moth, however, was one draw-

Fords Ready
For Mass Output
Of War Planes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Edsel Ford said today after a conference with William S. Knudsen, member of the National Defence Commission, that his company was ready to swing into mass production of airplanes as soon as the government granted it contracts.

The Ford Company president conferred for 2½ hours with Knudsen, production member of the commission.

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT—Mass production of high-speed pursuit planes for the United States army—at least 1,000 a day within six months—not only will be a simple task, Henry Ford said today, but they can be rolled off his assembly lines without interruption to normal output of automobiles.

The 76-year-old Ford made this assertion in an interview after he and his engineers had thoroughly inspected yesterday the type of plane the United States War Department believes would be "most needed in an emergency." It was a Curtiss P-40, single-engine machine with a top speed of 367 miles an hour.

"But remember," said Ford, who has held a life-long hatred of war, "they are to be for defence only, that's the bargain all the way through."

DEVELOPS MOTOR
Ford, disclosing he had been working on a new airplane motor for some time, indicated he was ready to get under way as soon as a go-ahead order is received from the War Department.

Ford, who examined the interior of the plane's cockpit and then crawled under the wings for a closer inspection of its construction, smiled confidently as he completed his personal survey.

"It was not a bit more complicated than I anticipated," he said today. "All we have to do is to get the first one right, the remainder of the volume then becomes merely a production job."

Welding, he said, would replace the thousands of rivets in the plane he visions in mass production.

"Also," he added, "we will do all our own tooling for the job, once we get the order to get under way."

Canada Consul
To Greenland

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King today announced appointment of a Canadian consul and vice-consul to Greenland. This move was made so the Canadian government would be kept continually informed of matters there, he said.

Mr. King told the Commons a shipload of supplies had also been sent to Greenland, arriving there last week. Formerly Greenland was dependent for supplies on its parent country, Denmark, now held by Germany.

Seizure of Denmark by Germany had created a problem for Canada and had been given the immediate attention of the Canadian government.

Local government in Greenland was continuing under the former local authorities, Mr. King said. The Ss. Nascope, which makes annual trips in Canada's Arctic regions, had been dispatched on a special voyage-bearing supplies to Greenland, and was now returning from there with goods.

Mr. King said the government had named Kenneth Kirkwood, formerly of the Canadian Legation at Tokyo and The Hague, as consul to Greenland.

War Declaration
By South Africa

LONDON (CP)—The Union of South Africa "declared war on Italy this afternoon," the Dominions and Colonial Office announced. The statement added the Union was closely affected by Italy's intervention in the war. Beyond the Union's borders a belt of British colonies stretches to the borders of Ethiopia and Italian Somaliland, it said.

Their interests are also those of the Union and General Smuts (the Prime Minister) repeatedly has given explicit assurances that the Union will stand by them in the hour of danger," the statement said.

SPEEDY U.S. AID TO ALLIES URGED

LONDON (CP)—Andre Maurois, French author now serving as French liaison officer with the British army, said here today, "if we can hold out until September we shall have won this war," but help must come quickly to be useful.

Maurois, who left Paris yesterday, said he had heard President Roosevelt's speech with great emotion, but that help from the United States must come at once if it is to be effective.

"It is not a question of speeches," Maurois said, "but a question of tanks and guns."

These are "anxious and painful days for France," he said, and French soldiers are "fighting as they have never fought before, against very heavy odds—one man against two men, sometimes three, and one tank against three or four."

"With help, if that help comes in time," he added, "this war can still be won, but help must come not in a matter of months but in days."
